

Early Bird Registration: 2009 LGBT Job Fair Series 9.0

Dear Employers, Recruiters and Hiring Managers,

Thank you for your past support of The San Francisco LGBT Community Center's Job Fairs. At this time, we are offering you a chance to sign up early to participate in the full 2009 Job Fair Series at a discount fee of ($800).

Employers tell us they receive maximum value and visibility from their relationship with The Center by participating in the full job fair series, serving as panelists during our job seeker educational programs and contacting The Center regularly when they have open positions. This is your opportunity to recruit talented, capable staff members who reflect the full diversity of the Bay Area's LGBT community.

By acting now, you will receive the following benefits:

- Savings – $100.00 discount if you sign-up to become a 2009 annual event participant.
 - Participation in two LGBT Job Fairs 2009 taking place at The Center.
 - Reserved table for the Transgender Job Fair V, April 29, 2009.
- Branding – your company's name will appear on all 2009 Job Fair Series 9.0 promotional material and announcements.
- Speaking Opportunities – your hiring managers and executives will be given the opportunity to participate in job seeker panel discussions and expert forums being held throughout the year.
- Receipt of comprehensive post-event summary reports documenting attendee demographics, survey results, and outreach efforts.
- New: Employer logo page on The Center's website with links to your firm.

Our 2008 Job Fairs will have attracted nearly 900 job seekers to The Center. Moreover, our surveys indicate that the 2008 Job Fair Series attracted a higher percentage of employed (passive) jobseekers, showing that LGBT community members want to work for companies like yours that embrace diversity completely. Successful hires have been made at a variety of participant companies including UCSF Medical, Charles Schwab, Salesforce.com, H & R Block, and many others. Early registration ensures maximum for co-branding with the 2009 LGBT Job Fair Series.

Special Bonus: The Center will partner with San Francisco Transgender Empowerment Advocacy and Mentorship (SFTEAM) on April 29, 2009, to hold a transgender job fair, which is free of charge. In 2008, The Center hosted our fourth-ever transgender job fair, which was an overwhelming success with 100 job seekers and 20 employers represented. Please let us know if you are interested in participating in the transgender job fair, and we will reserve a space for you!

Attached to this message are three documents:
