How to participate:

The Center's 25th Job Fair is the centerpiece of Economic Empowerment Week, a weeklong series of events and workshops showcasing the Center's economic development activities in financial education, credit building, employment/job readiness services and small business services. Sponsorships are available for Economic Empowerment Week which provide increased visibility and include participation in the Center's 25th Job Fair. Employers may participate solely in the Center's 25th Job Fair by purchasing a table for $450. This fee includes a diversity training lunch and a welcome packet with valuable information about the Job Fair Series and the LGBT workforce. Registration closes on October 08, 2011. This event is expected to sell out quickly and attract many well known Bay Area employers with over 150 job opportunities. Job seeker attendance is anticipated to be approximately 350 – 400. All proceeds benefit the San Francisco LGBT Community Center.
